Dear Partners,

Another bi-annual term of the WSA is coming to the end and WSA is entering into its 8th year. The Winners’ events in Monterrey, Mexico held from September 2-5 have again demonstrated the relevance and crucial importance of the content issue in the development of the “Information Age”. Four days of celebrations, discussions and exhibition provided all participants a unique opportunity to meet and connect with the best and most creative people in this area, with ICT experts, and business leaders.

The goal of the WSA is to break the awareness barrier and the marketing deadlock where big promotional budgets or market dominance decide what is available and known in e-Content. It also aims to help overcome linguistic and cultural barriers and the smallness of national markets, to generate an international showcase and to stimulate an interchange of quality multimedia. It is a curious fact of the emerging Information Society that many people – even the ones who are deeply involved in industry and policymaking – have little information about what quality contents are. They lack opportunities to see, use and experience the power of great e-Contents.

The success of WSA would not be possible without support of its partners and I would like to use this opportunity to thank everyone who shared our vision and stood behind the WSA initiative in the past years. This document shall give you an overview on the main activities and key facts of the last WSA year.

We are looking forward to a strong and visionary partnership in the years to come!

Peter A. Bruck
Chairman World Summit Award
PARTNERS AND SUPPORTERS STATEMENTS

“I am very proud that a country like Austria was the initiator of the World Summit Award in 2003. The WSA can help create more equity and the e-content industries more economic growth and more jobs, more independence and better chances in life and quite generally enhance solidarity within our societies.”

Werner Faymann, Federal Chancellor of the Republic of Austria

WSA’s work in promoting e-Content and innovative ICT applications for those that need it most around the world is crucial to GAID’s goals and vision to promote and establish innovative and sustainable ICTD initiatives around the globe.

Sha Zukang, Under-Secretary-General, DESA, United Nation

“UNESCO has been supporting the World Summit Award since its launch in 2003. It especially values the efforts of the WSA in promoting the digitalization of cultural documentary heritage and in fostering local content.”

Koichiro Matsuura, Director-General, UNESCO

“UNIDO joined hands with the WSA to support the development and application of ICT for SMEs, particularly in sub-Saharan Africa. I am convinced that initiatives such as the WSA give people from developing countries a much needed voice to demonstrate that innovation, entrepreneurship and creative use of new technologies do not have boundaries.”

Kandeh Yumkella, Director-General, UNIDO

“At the World Summit Awards Gala in Venice, it was made vividly clear that we are at the threshold of a new revolution that will eliminate the role of media as epicenters of information, giving every single human being the opportunity to become a generator and a broadcaster of multimedia content.”

Ramón Alberto Garza, President & CEO, Indigomedia, WSA Sponsor

“We took a close look at the concept that’s behind this initiative and decided to support this project as it is not only in line with ISOC’s mission of promoting the use of the Internet for the benefit of people everywhere, but it also reaches out specifically to very important segments, such as young people through the World Summit Youth Award.”

Lynn St. Amour, President & CEO, Internet Society (ISOC) WSA Sponsor

Bridging society and strengthening participation of citizens through multimedia.
WSA GRAND JURY 2009
NEW DELHI, INDIA, APRIL 2-8, 2009

✓ India as official host of the Grand Jury
✓ 34 international jurors
✓ Selection of 40 winners in eight categories and special mentions

The WSA Grand Jury belongs to the most important events in the entire WSA process. It brings together renowned multimedia experts from all parts of the world - Africa, Asia, Australia and Oceania, North and Latin America, and Europe - in the unique opportunity to learn about and judge the best contents and most innovative applications from around the world, forming a unique college of evaluation.

The WSA 2009 Jury Meeting, hosted by the Department of Information Technology, Ministry of Communication and Information Technology, Government of India and organised by the Digital Empowerment Foundation (DEF) took place in New Delhi, India, April 2-8, 2009. For the 4th time since the launch of the WSA in 2003, 34 leading e-Content experts from all continents came together to consider 545 national finalists from United Nations Member States and select this years’ best.

“In contrast to mass TV and newspapers, the new media do not concentrate in one country or one region; we do not see a digital Hollywood or digital Fleet street. Rather, the most interesting e-Contents come from smaller markets, and there from smaller players. They appear to be much more in touch with users and their communities. Local content, not global, triumphs in terms of quality” concludes Peter Bruck, WSA Chairman, from the Jury proceedings.

Australia, Austria, Canada and New Zealand were the four countries that emerged as clear leaders in this years’ contest. With three winners each, creative content producers and application designers from those countries topped approximately 20,000 other products and projects from the 157 countries participating in the 4th edition of the World Summit Award.

WSA WINNERS’ CELEBRATIONS 2009
2-5 September 2009, MONTERREY, MEXICO

Thanks to the generous invitation of the WSA Mexican partners under the leadership of Mr. Ramón Alberto Garza of Indigo Brainmedia, in 2009 the World Summit Award held its Winners’ events to promote the world’s best e-Content in the City of Monterrey. The four-day celebrations in Mexico provided a unique opportunity to meet and connect with WSA winners, ICT experts, business leaders, multimedia producers and creatives as well as government and business leaders who gave their recognition to the showcased best practice examples. In addition, the World Summit Youth Award focused on the use of the Internet and mobile applications to put the UN’s Millennium Development Goals into Action.

THE WINNERS CONFERENCE - GIVING VOICE TO THE CONTENT CREATORS

Information and Communication Technologies seem only relevant for some people. But if they are used in a creative way, they can have a great impact on the lives of a lot of people and can improve the standard of living relevantly, since creativity is not bound to financial means, infrastructure nor access to networks. In fact creativity is a „natural resource“ of the human mind, which is available worldwide. It is just a question of content.

The goal of the WSA Winners Conference in Monterrey was to show how easy it can be to bridge the digital divide and the narrow the content gap. All winners of the WSA 09 contest were invited to present their products and projects to an international audience of ICT experts and e-Content producers and had the opportunity to discuss new ways of implementation and development.

CONTENT CAVES – THE EXHIBITION

The Content Caves offered a platform for a truly outstanding experience for everyone interested in e-Content and the creative use of ICTs and who is ready to explore and discover the industry’s latest trends and innovations. The world’s best content producers were given the showcase they deserve and presented in 40 “content caves” a new media exhibition of its own class. The displays were hosted in the basement floor of the Pabellón Planta Eléctrica at the Parque Fundidora in Monterrey.
EVENING OF CELEBRATION – THE WINNERS GALA

The Gala Celebration is the highlight of the entire WSA process 2008-2009 and a unique ceremony to honor excellence in multimedia and e-Content creation. 40 winning teams in 8 categories are invited from all over the world to be present on stage and handed out the awards by highest level international dignitaries. The Gala was orchestrated as a three-hour show with music and multimedia elements.

The winners’ celebrations started by an hour of Youth Award celebration followed by the main WSA Gala. By bringing together government, business and civil society the WSA supports the creation of synergies between suppliers and users of communications applications and assists in connecting practical applica-

The “World’s Best Contents Book 2009” is the main print publication and promotional means of the World Summit Award (WSA) and a unique and highest quality publication on e-Content movement. The book is issued every two years following the WSA Grand Jury meeting and gives a unique insight and overview on the state of the art in e-Content production world wide. It presents and showcases the best of the best in Content production - the 40 WSA Winners with an extensive information, description and contact info, and includes articles and statements on the trends and tendencies provided by the world’s leading experts, business leaders and government officials. Be it in Guatemala or India, in Austria or New Zealand – if you wish to know “what is up” in the e-Content scene, and are looking for concrete examples of the best and most creative use of ICT - you should just open the book.

The book was officially announced and issued at the Winners’ Celebrations in Monterrey, Mexico in September 2009, held in cooperation with the UN’s Global Alliance on ICT and Development. This event alone expects over 700 guests of highest professional or political standing plus national attendees.

For the first time this year, the “World’s Best Contents Book” is issued as an official UNESCO publication with a print run of 2.000 - 5.000 pieces and distribution over UNESCO distribution channels and offices world wide, as well as over the World Summit Award events, showcases and conferences running in over 20 countries within each two year phase.

Further publications and promotion means:

- WSA General Flyer 2009: Print run 2000
- WSA Official Program Monterrey: Print run 2000
- 40 short videos on winning projects
- WSA DVD 2009 (tbc)
